

1. Look at the following sentences and give advice using should. Start your sentences with I think or I don't think:

- a. John smokes too much and is always sick. (quit smoking)
He should quit smoking.
- b. My sister has a bad grade in math class. (study more)
I think she should study more.
- c. Penny is flying to Los Angeles at 5:30 tomorrow morning. (go to bed late)
I don't think she should go to bed late.
- d. Jerry's cat is hungry. (feed his cat)
I think Jerry should feed his cat.
- e. It's raining, and Wayne wants to go for a walk. (take an umbrella)
I think Master Wayne should take an umbrella.
- f. Melissa doesn't want to stay home tonight. (go out)
I don't think Melissa should go out tonight.
- g. Tina is driving too fast. (slow down)
I think Tina should slow down.
- h. Fred is wearing a very ugly shirt. (wear that shirt)
I think Fred shouldn't be wearing that shirt.
- i. Kate is working very hard and is very tired. (take a break)
I think Kate should take a break some time.
- j. Tony's room is really messy, and his friends are coming over to visit.
(clean his room)
I think Tony should clean his room.

2. Make questions with should for the words in orange:. Make questions with what, when/what time, where, why, who, and how long:

a.		What should I buy? You should buy these shoes. They are so cool!
b.		What time should I wake up? You should wake up at 6:30 tomorrow.
c.		Where should I go for vacation? I think you should go to Las Vegas for vacation.
d.		When should I call you? You should call me at 3 PM.

e.		Who should I ask for help? You should ask Paul. He can help you.
f.		What should I make for dinner? You should make spaghetti for dinner. Everyone loves that.
g.		How much should I study tonight? You should study for two hours tonight.
h.		Where should I sit? You should sit at the front of the room.
i.		What should I study? You should study history because it's very interesting.

j.	 A photograph of two men standing outdoors in a park-like setting. One man is wearing a red hoodie and the other is wearing a blue denim shirt. They are both smiling and looking at each other.	What should I bring to the party? You should bring some chips and drinks.
k.	 A photograph of a man and a woman sitting at a bar. The man is wearing a dark jacket and the woman is wearing a white sweater. They are both smiling and looking at each other.	What should I ask her? You should ask her for her name.
l.	 A photograph of a waiter in a white shirt and black vest standing next to a table. A man and a woman are sitting at the table. The man is wearing a grey suit and the woman is wearing a black dress. They are both smiling and looking at each other.	What should I order? You should order the fried chicken. It's delicious!

3. Choose must or mustn't to complete the following sentences:

- a. You must / mustn't talk while the teacher is teaching.
- b. I must / mustn't work harder if I want a successful business.
- c. Children must / mustn't see this film. It's too scary.
- d. You must / mustn't turn off your cellphone in class.
- e. You must / mustn't drink so much coffee. It's not healthy.
- f. Tell Peter he must / mustn't call me if he has any trouble.
- g. You must / mustn't wear your shoes in the house.
- h. I must / mustn't forget my keys again.
- i. You must / mustn't take a shower before you enter the swimming pool.
- j. You must / mustn't eat on the bus. Other people will be angry if you do.

4. What do you think? Is should/shouldn't or must/mustn't better in the following sentences?

- a. People should / must save money.
- b. Children shouldn't / mustn't play video games all day.
- c. I should / must study English more.
- d. People should / must exercise.
- e. Students should / must learn grammar if they want to speak English well.
- f. People shouldn't / mustn't use guns.
- g. People should / must be kind to other people.
- h. I should / must take a shower tomorrow.
- i. People should / must learn about other countries.
- j. Students shouldn't / mustn't miss class.

5. Now, discuss your answers with a partner. Why did you choose your answers?