Team work

What is team work? It is the organization that a group has to carry out or complete a goal. Distribute the necessary tasks to all the people on the team based on their abilities so that in this way the objective or the task of the team is completed efficiently.